Our Annual Review.

Our Annual Review of the Trade and Commerce of Milwaukee meets with great favor. A large extra edition went off like hot cakes, and even the Free Democrat speaks of it in terms of praise. The pamphlet edition will be ready for delivery on Thursday. It will contain several pages of statistics in reference to the general wholesale trade and manufactures that were left out of the paper for want of room, and will also be free from the typographical errors which marred the first publication. Parties taking more than 10 copies can have their cards printed on the number for which they subscribe, by leaving their orders at the Sentinel counting room to-day.

THE BANKS OF WISCONSIN.—The report of our Comptroller, Mr. VAN STEENWYK, as to the condition of the Banks of Wisconsin on the second day of January, 1860, is published in the Madison Journal. The following summary contains the items of Capital, Circulation, Deposits, Specie, Cash Items, and Public and Private Securities of the 109 Banks now organized under the General Banking Law of this State:

Capital	$7,629,000
Circulation	4,129,555
Deposits	3,051,259
Specie	419,915
Cash Items	64,180
Public Securities	4,993,650
Private Securities	8,992,681

THE PARIS CONGRESS—WHAT NOW?—There would seem to have been an impression prevailing at the time the Anglo Saxon left, that the Congress of the great Powers, at Paris, had been given up; but for what reason we are left entirely to conjecture. We have abstracts of editorial articles in the leading London journals upon the effect of this reported new turn of affairs,—but we cannot find a word explanatory of the why or wherefore. But the mails, when they come along, doubtless, will enlighten us. The impression, however, we may add, does not appear to be well founded,—else we should not be informed that Prince GORTSCHAKOFF, representing Russia, and Cardinal ANTONELLI, even, representing the Pope, had set out for Paris.

THE EMPEROR AND THE POPE.—The Papal Nuncio, it would seem, made an effort to draw out the French Emperor on Italian affairs, at the formal reception of the Diplomatic Corps at the Tuilleries on New Year's Day, but did not succeed. The utmost Napoleon would condescend to say, was, that since his accession to power, he had always professed the most profound respect for recognized rights, and that his constant endeavors, now, were directed to the re-establishment of confidence and peace. Not a syllable about the Guerroniere pamphlet! Not a word about the Pope!

THE PHŒNIX BANK CASE.—This case, which was decided in favor of this State at a special term of the Superior Court of the city of New York, has now been appealed to the general term of the same Court, and will probably be argued next month. The bank will probably stave off payment as long as possible, in which case it will be appealed to the Supreme Court and thence to the Court of Appeals, where a docket of six hundred strong stands in the way of it and a speedy decision.

Matters at Washington.

Correspondence of Cincinnati Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21, 1860.

The debate in the House yesterday, was one of the most exciting of the session. Mr. Sherman rose to a personal explanation, when the whole House, Republicans and Democrats, gathered about him. In clear and distinct tones he announced that if Clark's, of Missouri, offensive resolution was withdrawn, if only for a moment, he would express his opinion fully upon the Helper book, but wo'd not do while a menace was held over him.—It was not in his blood and could not be put there. This remark elicited loud applause. Clark of course declined to withdraw his resolution.

The last thing the Democrats desire, is Sherman's opinion. They know that it would explode all their theories, and defeat all their calculations. I think, however, that the matter is pretty well understood by the House, and the bugbear has lost its intimidating power.

Forty-one Southern Democrats signed a pledge to resist the adoption of the plurality rule to the last. Several distinctly refused to sign it, as involving a revolutionary precedent, and intended to provoke sectional conflict.

The Sergeant-at-Arms, having loaned members $100,000, has been compelled to shut up shop.

A VOLCANO IN NEW YORK.—The Troy Arena of January 16th is responsible for the following:

"The facts herein stated may appear somewhat increditable to those not conversant with them. They can, however, be substantiated by thousands of witnesses residing in the vicinity alluded to, and may be relied upon as strictly true in every particular.—In Putnam county, this State, nearly opposite West Point, there is a mountain known in the neighborhood as Break Neck Mountain, into which there is an opening of a cavernous description, somewhat irregular in form, but quite straight in its direction, and twenty feet or more in diameter, out of which at certain times there issue masses of matter with great force. These eruptions are composed of vitreous and mineral substances of various kinds, together with fragments of trees, and not unfrequently mingled with evidences of animal existence. These masses amount sometimes in bulk to several tons; cause a deafening roar, and are accompanied by fire and smoke. The existence of this volcano has not been known until lately, which is probably the reason that it has attracted no more notice."

ANTI-CAPITAL PUNISHMENT MEETING.—Mr. Boree, of Wisconsin, addressed our citizens last evening, on the "Repeal of the Death Penalty." At least 1,000 persons were present, nearly filling Mechanics' Hall. For two hours he held his audience by his earnest and eloquent address. Post after post was carried until the old fortification of "blood for blood" was utterly demolished. His eloquent and burning truths sunk deep in every heart, and at the conclusion of his remarks, of that immense audience, but four or five were found to vote in favor of the "gallows."

Hundreds of names were immediately add ded to petitions for the "abolition," and ladies pressed forward, shaking hands with Mr. Boree, and bidding him God speed it his work. The meeting was enthusiastic bu-orderly.—Utica Observer.

JUVENILE PRIZE FIGHT.—A couple of lads, one of whom is engaged on the Milwaukee & Chicago Railroad, had a prize fight in Chicago on Monday. It seems they had been training for the affair some time. They were arrested and fined.

THE CITY.

AN IMPORTANT INVENTION.—For the last ten years native ingenuity has taxed its powers to complete some sort of a mechanical arrangement which would be such a decided improvement on the old fashioned bellows as to produce and propel a continuous blast of air without so great an expenditure of power. Heretofore the inventions have been little more than improvements on the common bellows, consisting of a multiplication or novel arrangement of the old clapper, and air chamber, and our organ builders and blacksmiths have been content to use the leather blower, with its pump-handle lever, because nothing was offered that did not seriously augment the demand for power.

We have now seen a simple machine, patented by Mr. T. C. RICHARDS, which promises to supercede—in all cases where a continuous and perfectly steady draught of air is desired—the bellows, and even the fan wheel. This patent, which Mr. RICHARDS calls a Rotary Bellows, consists of a moveable cylinder enclosed in a box and surrounded by air chambers partitioned with strips of flexible material and each supplied with inlet valves.

When motion is communicated to the inner cylinder, it makes an eliptical revolution, and successively forces the air from each chamber into a common discharge pipe. The chambers, as the cylinder leaves them, of course being again filled with air from without, to be repeatedly forced into the discharge pipe. It is, in a word, a series of bellows operated on by a crank; and the rotary motion required to force the air out, is so insignificant that the inventor actually proposes to attach it to melodeons, the motive power to be a spring, which will only require winding up before the performer sits down to the instrument, and then all her attention may be given to the keys, with no confounded treadle to work. Some idea of the efficiency of this little machine may be formed when we state that it will produce as many cubic feet of air—or perhaps we might say wind—in twenty revolutions a minute, as a fan making three thousand revolutions in the same time. And the force of the blast will be as great with one-horse, as a fan with ten. This much has been demonstrated by actual experiment.

We have no doubt, ere long, the patent will be applied to Church organs, doing away with that disagreeable necessity—a pumping man.

Y. M. ASSOCIATION LECTURES—GREELEY AND TAYLOR.—Milwaukee nobly redeemed its character Monday by one of the largest turn-outs that ever greeted a public lecturer in the city. Albany Hall was taxed to the utmost to accommodate the throng that assembled to hear the white-coated philosopher discourse on Utah, the Plains and California. The Board entered on the present Course with some misgivings as to the result, the apathy evinced previous to the New Year, tending to convey the impression that the public has lost its taste for rational recreation, and could only be aroused by the lighter enjoyments, or when a sense of duty induced a contribution towards charitable entertainments. The result proves that the gratification of the intellectual nature was only held in abeyance, and that we were simply taking one thing at a time.

We imagine the lecture Monday night is one of Mr. GREELEY'S best, abounding as it does in facts and statistics, and the kind of off-hand observations and conclusions for which HORACE is famous. Although not a narrative of his journey, his generalizations on the topics involved in the subject, were relieved of the dullness usually attaching to such productions, by the speaker's peculiar and original style.

We look for an equal, if not larger audience, to hear BAYARD TAYLOR'S lecture on one of the great lights recently extinguished, HUMBOLDT. Aside from the ability of the speaker, the subject has attractions to a large portion of the reading public, which will ensure their attendance on that occasion. Ample provision will be made for seating all who may attend.

We may as well mention here, that the Board has determined to admit new members on payment of the initiation fee, and the small amount of dues to the beginning of the fiscal year. There should be a large increase in consequence of this step, and the personal efforts of the Board.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES, for January. Philadelphia, BLANCHARD & LEA.

This valuable quarterly comes to us with a great amount of pathological and surgical information. It contains 320 pages, in which will be found not only numerous reports of interesting cases by the most distinguished men in the profession; but an immense amount of condensed scientific knowledge, including all the recent improvements and discoveries in medical science throughout the world.

We notice in turning over the leaves, an account of a case of hydrophobia successfully treated with drachm doses of calomel, by JOHN E. H. LIGGETT, M. D., of Carroll Co., Md. Dr. LIGGETT states it as his opinion that the increased flow of saliva in Rabies, is a conservative effort of the vis medicatrix to eliminate the poison from the system through the glands engaged in its secretion, and that it is the duty of the physician to first reduce the extreme excitability of the nervous system, the continuance of which occasions rapid exhaustion of the vital powers and death; and secondly, to follow the path pointed out by Nature and endeavor to aid her in her efforts to expel the poison from the system through the channel she has indicated. And pronounces the only remedy capable of fulfilling these indications, to be mercury. He then relates the case of MARIA, colored girl of GEORGE MANNING, of Carroll County, who was bitten in her great toe by a rabid dog and afterwards exhibited symptoms of hydrophobia, but was successfully treated with mercury; and concludes a long and interesting account of the patient with the following words:

"Gentlemen who enjoy facilities for investigation not possessed by the humble county practitioner, would do well to turn their attention to this subject. It is a goal worthy the highest ambition; for he who shall strip hydrophobia of its terrors by demonstrating its pathology and laying down a rational system of treatment for its cure, will carve out for himself a lofty niche in the temple of Science, and place his name among the benefactors of his race. I would rather be that man than to sway the sceptre of an empire."

MUNICIPAL COURT, JAN. 24—HIS HONOR, JUDGE FOOTE, PRESIDING.—John Scott and John Maston brought up for disorderly conduct, and the former was fined $5,64, the latter $2,64.

Jans Christianson, larceny, stealing $5 worth of lumber from Houghton & Co. Fine and costs $18,29, and to stand committed until paid. The same party was also convicted of having stolen lumber from R. W. Pierce of the value of $8, and sentenced to pay a fine of 28,92, and stand committed till paid.

INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.—The second injunction taken out by Mr. BALATKA, to prevent the change of affairs in the Market House, was dissolved by Judge MCARTHUR on Monday. The contractor has now a gang of men at work upon the building inaugurating the change.

Municipal Court.

For the Daily Sentinel.

We, the undersigned members of the Bar of Milwaukee county, having read with regret an article in the Daily Sentinel of this morning upon the subject of the "Municipal Court," and believing that the article in question does great injustice to the Judge of that Court, and conveys grossly erroneous impressions as to the character and usefulness of this Court and the manner of conducting business therein, therefore cheerfully make the following statement of our views. We have had occasion to attend said Court at different times since its organization on professional business and have never discovered any such deplorable state of things in said Court as is so feelingly pictured in the article alluded to. We have always found the Judge of the Municipal Court prompt and energetic in the discharge of his duty. We know of no reasons for distrusting the integrity of the Judge, and believe that he disposes of the various cases that come before his Court honestly and with entire integrity of purpose, as well as with ability and discrimination.

We believe further that the article alluded to, most erroneously states the feelings of the Bar towards the Court. We do not believe there is a member of the Bar who has any such prejudices against the Court or Judge as would prevent his going there to attend any case that he would attend in any other Court; in fact, we believe the Bar are not opposed to the Court and do not disrespect or dislike the Judge thereof.

We believe the Municipal Court is just the Court to dispose of the criminal business of the city and county of Milwaukee with economy and despatch, and sincerely hope the Legislature will do no such rash thing as to repeal the act establishing it, and particularly would we protest against any project for the revival of the old Police Court and giving criminal jurisdiction to the County Court. Combining the jurisdiction of the Police Court and the criminal jurisdiction of the Circuit Court and vesting both in the Municipal Court must lessen the expenses of administering criminal law in Milwaukee county, besides the Municipal Court is organized and has convenient rooms easy of access in which to do its business, and we hope no unfounded prejudices or ill-advised newspaper articles will succeed in disturbing it.

The undersigned have at various times attended to business in the Municipal Court, and have always, in their opinion, found Judge FOOTE discharging his duties promptly and impartially.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 17, 1859.

Hon. Erastus Foote, Judge of the Municipal Court—DEAR SIR:—In comment upon certain strictures made upon your Court and yourself, we beg leave to assure you that we have never refused to practice in your Court on grounds of objection to you, and that we know of no reason which would prevent us prosecuting or defending indictments in your Court, which we would be willing to prosecute or defend in any Court. ITEMS IN BRIEF.—The Committee on Water Works reported favorably on Monday evening, but the Board of Councilors refused to adopt the report.——The Madison Journal says that seven printers intend leaving that place for Pike's Peak in the Spring. What suicidal folly in men with such brilliant prospects before them here, and especially just now, when the Legislature is exerting itself so zealously in their favor (1)——CHARLES MACKWORTH had his pocket picked at the lecture, on Monday evening, of five dollars; so he says in a communication.——The meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club, which was to have taken place on Thursday, will be held on Friday evening, the 27th, at the office of the President, WINFIELD SMITH, Esq.

THANKS.—We take this opportunity of acknowledging our obligations to the gentlemen connected with the freight offices of the various Rail Roads terminating in this city, for courtesies extended to us while obtaining statistics for our annual review. Our thanks are especially due to W. L. DANA, Esq., Master of Transportation on the M. & Miss. R. R., who furnished us with a complete statement of the traffic of the road on Dec. 31st, for the year ending that day; also, to C. E. JENNINGS, Esq., Chief Clerk of the Mil. & Min. R. R.; to Secretary MASON, of the Mil. & Horicon R. R.; and to Collector CLASON and his Clerk, Mr. WEIS, for favors of a similar kind.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR FEBRUARY.—WM. E. TUNIS & Co. have laid the Atlantic on our table. It contains the conclusion of the "Amber Gods," one of the cleverest magazine stories we remember encountering for a great while. The Professor's story opens well. A goodly amount of choice poetry and fiction make up the number.

TUNIS & Co., on Wisconsin street, are in receipt of all the monthlies regularly.

THE SALE OF DRY GOODS, groceries, &c., &c., which was to have taken place this morning at the City Auction Room, is postponed, on account of the auctioneer, CALEB, being unable to use his voice, he having a very severe cold. The sale will take place on Wednesday morning, February 1st, at which time a large invoice of black tea and Boston bar soap will be sold.

GOING.—Crinoline fadeth. We saw yesterday two of our most fashionable ladies promenading, minus that spherical redundancy hitherto indespensable to the Hoot ton. Please go with it. We shall expect, about this time next year, to see our ladies as sub-ular as the mermaids on one dollar bank bills, or the figure of Hail Columbia.

ARRESTED.—CARL JOHNSON was arrested by Officer BUECHNER for stealing lumber from the yard of PIERCE & Co. He was fined, in the Municipal Court yesterday morning, $25 for one offence, and $15 for another.

SOMEWHAT INDEFINITE.—We find the following notice in an evening cotemporary:

LOST.—A gold chain with a cross attached set with pearls and a jet through the middle of it. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at NEWSBOYS' BALL.—That newsboys' ball will come off on Monday night at SIVYER'S hall. BILL MCKEY is floor manager. We half suspect it will be a grand affair.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS, FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Harper's Ferry Investigation.

NEW YORK, Jan 24.—8 P. M.

Washington correspondence of the Tribune.—No testimony has been given before the Investigating Committee, in any way implicating Republicans with John Brown's raid. Mr. Realf states emphatically that the movement was known to but few persons, as John Brown was a secretive man, and kept his own counsels. None who accompanied him to Harper's Ferry but Kag-, was informed of the plan, which did not contemplate running negroes. He says also that Brown and those in his confidence were radical abolitionists, who renounced the Republicans.

When Senator Wilson made his speech in Lawrence, they assailed him for failing to approach their standard of duty. Mr. Wilson appeared before the committee and stated that he had written to Dr. Howe, of Boston, for the original letters which had been referred to by Realf. The letter was written in May, 1858, and substantially tells Howe that information has reached him to the effect that Brown intended using arms furnished for Kansas by the Massachusetts Aid Society, in a manner not contemplated, and advises that they should be withdrawn from him.

Mr. Blair, of Collinsville, who manufactured the pikes which figured at Harper's Ferry, states that they were ordered during the Kansas troubles as weapons of protection.

Mr. Callendar, Cashier of the Bank of Hartford, proves that Brown had funds there, which were drawn to furnish supplies for Kansas. Never had the remotest idea of the movement in Virginia till it was published.

The Herald's Washington correspondence says Realf concluded his testimony to-day.—It was a detailed account of the Brown provisional government in Kansas, which has already been published. He testifies that he went to England in 1858, and knew nothing of Brown's operations after that time. He was requested to examine certain letters found in Brown's bag, to see if he could identify, but testified that he knew nothing about Brown's correspondence, or the authorship of the letters.

It is evident that some of the members of the committee have been disappointed in Realf's testimony, he having testified to nothing of importance that was not before in the evidence.

Mr. B. B. Newton, the Vermont member of the National Kansas Committee, and previously the leader of the colony at Mapleton, Bourbon county, Kansas, confirmed the testimony of Mr. Corning, as to the refusal of the National Committee to furnish arms to Brown in 1857. When he commenced testifying in relation to the invasion of Kansas by armed bodies of men, he was stopped.

Senator Wilson went before the Committee to-day and informed them that he would produce a copy of the to Dr. Howe, concerning the movements of Brown, based upon the information he received from Col. Forbes. He sent for it. The chairman informed him they were willing to give him his own time to prepare his testimony.

The President sent to the Senate, to-day, the name of Thomas Harne, as Marshal of the Northern district of Illinois.

Arrival of the Africa.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—8 P. M.

The steamer Africa arrived at midnight. Her advices were anticipated by the arrival at St. Johns of the Circassian. We send, however, further details from Great Britain.

Mr. Davis, who absconded with liabilities to his clients to £130,000, had been tried and sentenced to ten years penal service.

An address to Lord Palmerston, urging the Government to maintain integrity and independence of the Pope's dominions, was in the course of signature by the Roman Catholics in Ireland.

The London Times regards the dismissal of Walewski as a declaration that Napoleon the 3d is disposed to commit himself to the more liberal and generous line of policy.

The London Herald's Paris correspondent says that Walewski was positively dismissed. His successor was regarded as antagonistic to England.

A report had been drawn up by the most eminent jurisconsults of the French bar, which establishes the right of Frenchmen to petition the Senate on changes of the existing laws.

The Journal of Rome had published an article, supposed under official auspices, of so bitter a nature as regards the late pamphlet, that the French papers did not dare to reproduce it.

The Constitutionel publishes an article regretting the appearance of the offensive manifesto, but says that although France may be grieved by it, she will not hold the Pope responsible.

The friends of free trade in Paris had petitioned the Emperor for leave to re-establish an association for obtaining a reform of the custom tariff. They had also adopted measures for establishing a journal to defend their principles.

The Bombay mails of the 12th of Dec. had reached England. The expedition of troops from India to China, is not expected to sail before next March.

A telegram from Bombay of Dec. 15, confirms the capture of 2,000 rebels in Oude.

LATER—LONDON, Saturday Morning.—The Paris correspondent of the Advertiser says it is rumored that Lord Cowley had gone to London with the Emperor's proposal that France and England shall immediately declare that they will never interfere themselves, nor tolerate the interference of others in the affairs of Italy.

Wisconsin Legislature.

MADISON, Jan. 23—3 P. M.

SENATE.—Petitions—By Senator Decker, from the publishers of the Appleton Crescent, in relation to printers' fees; by Senator Phillips, of Nelson McNeil, in relation to his contract for building a hospital for the insane.

Bills Introduced—By Senator Hanchett, to establish an official State paper; by Senator Taylor, to authorize the Mechanics' Bank of Green Lake to remove to Whitewater; by Senator Cox, to authorize the city of Hudson to issue bonds; by Senator Stewart, to confer certain powers upon the trustees of the village of Monroe; by Senator Phillips, to amend chap. 79, R. S., entitled "Of Railroads."

Resolutions—By Senator Curtiss, to amend the standing rules for the appointment of a committee on federal relations.—Adopted; by Senator Davis, that Senators Curtiss, Simpson and Bartlett comprise such committee. Adopted.

Senator Maxon's Harper's Ferry resolutions were taken up and refered to the committee on Federal relations.

A communication was received from the Secretary of State, in reply to the resolution of the Senate, giving the amount of the expenditures in behalf of the State Historical Society, which is in the aggregate of $12,-613.64.

The Senate then went into a committee of the whole on general file, Senator Hutchinson in the chair; and after going through the file, rose and reported.

On motion of Senator Hutchinson, the Senate adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.—Petitions, &c.—In relation to the education of State prisoners; a remonstrance against the reduction of legal advertising; also a petition for a reduction of the tax on foreign insurance companies; for a change in the school laws so that district officers will be elected annually; against the passage of a law relating to costs and fees; to enlarge the school district of Burlington; several remonstrances against the reduction of printers fees.

Resolutions—By M. Townsend, to enquire whether the State Treasurer had sold gold for currency, or owned a bank, or traded in State funds, &c.; as to granting certain State lands to actual settlers; to enquire of the Committee whether printers' fees ought not to be reduced; as to what legislation is necessary to encourage manufactures; as to a change in interest laws; by Mr. Elmore, to raise the stars and stripes over the capitol; to give each member more postage stamps; that Saturday adjournments be always till Monday 2 1-2 p. m.; as to printing 6,000 copies of the Governor's message in different languages. Mr. Horn moved to strike out the Welch language. A long debate ensued, Horn, Bouck, Barnum and Cole for the motion to strike out, and Judd, Cobb and Horton against it.

Memorials—By the State Medical Society; in relation to criminal abortion.

A long debate sprung up as to taking newspapers. Without coming to any definite result the House adjourned.

Destructive Fire.

GRAND RAPIDS, Jan. 24—3 P. M.

A fire broke out last night in Taylor's block, occupied by Miller & Grinnel, grocers, Porter & Sleigh, dry goods, Goodrich & Gay, hardware, postoffice and county offices, which with adjoining wooden buildings and contents, were nearly consumed. But few county records saved. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

New Government of Buenos Ayres.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—3 P. M.

We have received advices from Buenos Ayres to the 29th of Nov., inclusive. The Governor of Buenos Ayres has issued an address to the military, congratulating them upon the restoration of peace, and calling upon them to lend the weight of their influence in carrying out the desires of the new government. The ratification of the treaty of peace had been celebrated by a Te Deum in all the churches, and grand military displays throughout the province.

Fire at Hamilton, C. W.

HAMILTON, Jan. 24—9 P. M.

The Watertown flour mill, owned by W. P. Howland, M. P., was burned to-day, with 3,000 bus wheat and a quantity of flour.—Loss is not known, but is partially covered by insurance.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—9 P. M.

Mr. McClernand rose to a privileged question, that his colleague, Mr. Farnsworth, had, in effect, charged him with having suppressed certain resolutions of Illinois democrats, on the subject of Slavery in his (Farnsworth's speech the other day.

The charge was unfounded and unparliamentary, reflecting upon him (McC.)

Mr. Farnsworth replied that all he sought to do was to let the South and the country know where the Douglas democracy of Illinois stand.

They declare that they want no new Congressional test on slavery, no slave code, no revival of the African slave trade, and that slavery is merely a municipal local institution. He heard yesterday the speech of Mr. Douglas, who favored a slave code by making it a penitentiary offense for any person to interfere with the relation of master and slave.

Mr. Logan said that so far as the democracy of Illinois was concerned, they could take care of themselves, and if his colleague, Farnsworth, would take care of his own farm, he would act wisely.

With a little more propriety to the slave code, it was none of Mr. Farnsworth's business. The distinguished gent proposed that a law be passed to open the doors of the penitentiary to those who incite treason.—He suspected his colleague desired no such law for fear it might effect some persons living where Mr. Farnsworth does.

Mr. F. inquired what did Mr. Douglas propose but a slave code?

Mr. Logan said he endorsed every point of Mr. Douglas's bill, which was merely to suppress conspiracy for infracting on the rights of sister States.

Mr. F. repeated that Mr. Douglas proposed to pass a Slave Code for the protection of Slavery wherever it exists, notwithstanding the Douglas Democrats in Illinois had declared Slavery a local and municipal thing. That is the miserable sophistry and position of the men his colleague, Logan, worships. It became necessary for Mr. Douglas to make a bid for Southern support, and he goes in for a Congressional Slave Code. His colleague had talked about sending Representatives to the penitentiary; he had no doubt the man his colleague worships would be glad to send the Representatives to the penitentiary till after the next election. (Laughter.) We expect to get him into the penitentiary before he gets us there.

Mr. McClernand resumed his personal explanation.

Mr. Corwin appealed to the gentleman to say whether instead of tracing back Brown's raid to Mr. Seward's declaration they should not more properly trace it to their heroes and great men belonging to the whole United States and world. Theirs are names which will brightly illumine the page of history while we have been food for worms. He asserted the resolution of Mr. Clark of Mo., was an advertisement of the Helper book and that Mr. Sherman had satisfactorily explained how his name had become connected with that work. Mr. Sherman had not endorsed that work; it was not prepared at the time he authorized his name to be appended to a political pamphlet, after being assured it would be all right.

Criminality is to be determined from the intent, and no such existed against Mr. Sherman, who neither endorsed nor approved incendiary or insurrectionary documents.—Suppose a man subscribes for a newspaper for six months, and the editor turns out to be a rascal and a blackguard. Is the subscriber to be held responsible for that? It had been said that the election of Mr. Sherman would be the initiatory step for disunion, and if followed by the election of Mr. Seward to the Presidency, that calamity would be accomplished. But no menace or threat from any section can make him shrink from exercising the rights bequeathed to him by his fathers. Were he to submit, that very moment he would be disfranchised, and would have a collar about his neck and be treated as a serf.

He argued at some length that the territories are to be governed by Congressional law, which could provide whether slavery shall or shall not exist. He referred to a former period of our history, to show that Mr. Monroe, President, and Messrs. John Quincy Adams, Crawford, Calhoun and Southard, all agreed that Congress had the power to exclude slavery from the territories. He also alluded to the Judicial history of the country, to show that the position of Republicans was consistent therewith. Their principles on this subject were the same as those of the old Whig party. Mr. Calhoun had emphatically said that the doctrine that Congress could not legislate on the subject of slavery in the territories was absurd and contrary to the practice of the Government from its foundation to the present time.

Mr. Corwin expressing a willingness to yield the floor, Mr. Winslow moved that the House proceed to vote for Speaker viva voce.

Mr. Hickman and others on the Republican side objected.

Mr. Corwin resumed reviewing the history of the Democracy of Ohio of 1848, who, in resolutions declared that they looked on the institution of Slavery as unfavorable to the full development of free institutions, and entertaining these sentiments, said they would be derelict to duty if they did not prevent its increase, and mitigate and finally eradicate it.

The Democracy in 1848 held these doctrines, going farther than the Whigs; but in that year the Democratic party were carried captive to Babylon. Zachary Taylor was elected President. The Democrats hung their harps on the willows, and mourned for the slain of the daughters of their people. While up to 1853 they maintained that slavery might be restricted, the Democracy suddenly wake up and say slavery is very good and will develop the resources of the country. He referred to these things to show Democratic inconsistency. The question as to slavery must be tested here after the House is organized, if this shall ever take place. If Southern gentlemen announce, as they have, that this Union shall be dissolved if the people of the North elect a President of their choice, we shall then see where the treason lies.

Mr. Corwin spoke four hours.

SENATE.—Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to secure wages to seamen in case of wreck; referred.

Mr. Brown introduced a bill to provide for the public building lithographing and engraving; referred to the committee on printing.

Mr. Rice introduced a resolution instructing the committee on territories to bring in a bill for the organization of the territory of Dacotah; laid over.

Mr. King's resolution to appoint a committee to investigate whether any money had been paid by the public printer for the support of newspapers, &c., was taken up and adopted.

Mr. Iverson introduced a printed resolution relative to the pay of retired and decripit officers of the navy. Referred to the committee on naval affairs.

Mr. Douglas' resolution was then called up. Mr. Toombs addressed the Senate. He accepted the resolution from the Senator from Ill., as a move in the right direction, but he feared the disease was too deep seated for the remedy proposed. Common interests and a common danger carried us through the revolution; after the formation of the government, parties were formed, and great interests divided and deeply moved it. It was divided upon the slien and sedition laws, the tariff, and the wars with Great Britain and Mexico, but the people submitted to the decision of the ballot-box. This was now changed; it was time to seek the remedy. Mr. Toombs continued at some length.

After some further discussion the Senate went into executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

The steamship Baltic arrived at 2:30 P. M., from Aspinwall with $1,760,000 in treasure, and San Francisco dates of the 5th brought down by the Golden Age.

On December 1st a battle was fought near Colima, between Miramon, with 8,000 troops, and the liberals, numbering 7,000, under Rojas and Ogazon. The action lasted five hours; the liberals had six or seven hundred killed and wounded, and the conservatives three hundred. Miramon captured five field-pieces and 2,000 prisoners. On the 24th he took possession of Colima and sent a detachment to Mausemillo and seized two vessels, the Gen. Vega and La Puarte, and armed them. Their destination was supposed to be Masarlan.

The California news is only three days later. The Cortez with the mails of Dec. 5th arrived at San Francisco on the eve of the 3d, a week behind the opposition steamer.

The Senate had agreed to meet in joint convention on the fifth for choice of U. S. Senator, by a vote of 20 to 12, which was regarded as a test of Weller's strength.

Philip Moore was chosen speaker of the House and that branch had agreed to the Senate resolution for a joint convention on the 5th.

The Governor's message would not be sent in before the sixth.

The overland mail of of the 12th, with St. Louis telegraphic advices of the 12th, had reached San Francisco. The Bulletin of the 3rd contains several columns of news telegraphed from St. Louis to Malley's Station, thence by mail to Fierebaugh's Ferry, California, thence by telegraph to San Francisco, inaugurating a new era in California journalism.

More trouble is anticipated from the Pick River Valley Indians. Some 1500 are collected at the bend of that stream.

The Senate had adopted a resolution requesting the members of Congress from California to urge the formation of a new territory out of Carson Valley.

No other news of importance.

Fearful Disaster in the China Sea—Loss of an American Clipper, with Nearly 1,000 Souls.

The New York Herald contains a graphic account of the wreck of the American clipper ship Flora Temple, of Baltimore, in the China Sea, in October last, which disaster caused the loss of eight hundred and fifty Coolies, and eighteen Europeans. It was written by Dr. A. P. Childs, who was a passenger on board, and illustrates the horrors which almost inevitably attend the Coolie trade, while it describes one of the most disastrous shipwrecks that ever occurred:

The Flora Temple sailed from Macao for Havana, on the 9th of October, 1859. When she had been out a few days it was discovered that the Coolies, who were doubtless greatly dissatisfied with the dreary prospects before them, had formed a scheme to kill the crew and take possession of the ship.—The mutiny was promptly suppressed by the captain, but not until one of the crew had been hacked to pieces and killed, and several others wounded; and put for the panic produced among the Coolies, by the prompt use of revolvers, by the captain of the vessel and a portion of the crew, the latter would probably have all been murdered.

Before the excitement growing out of this mutiny had subsided, and while the intense feeling created by it still remained, on the 14th of October the vessel struck a reef in the China sea, and notwithstanding the efforts to save her; it was found impossible to extricate her from her position. The crew at once were horrified by the fear that while all on board were in this helpless and deplorable condition the Coolies would rise and murder them, and the Captain ordered the boats to be lowered, into one of which, containing thirty-one men, including the writer of the account, Captain Johnson and his brother entered, and after enduring many sufferings and privations, arrived on the thirteenth day after leaving the wreck, at Tourau, where they were hospitably received by the French Admiral, M. Page, who sent in search of the missing boats, as well as to rescue the Coolies; but of these eight hundred and fifty unfortunate beings, not one remained; and of the ship itself nothing could be seen except the port side, from the main chains forward, attached to the remainder of the wreck by the rigging, together with the bow-sprit and jib boom, and the top of what seemed to be a main sky sail-mast. No hope is entertained of the rescue or escape of the Coolies who had been abandoned, from their perilous situation, nor of the safety of the eigh

THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1860.

Who Shall be Chief Justice?

We publish this morning a communication on this subject which suggests the name of DAVID TAYLOR, of Sheboygan, as a candidate for Chief Justice. Without any expression of our own opinion in this matter, we refer our readers to the communication. We will say, however, of Judge TAYLOR, that he holds an enviable reputation as a sound lawyer and an able and upright Judge.

Democratic and K. N. Coalition.

The News defends Judge LABRABEE's offer to vote for a Know-Nothing Speaker and commends the project to the favorable consideration of the Democrats in the House. It states the case thus:

"Neither party is in a majority. A combination between either of the two parties forms a majority, and by a combination alone can the House be organized.—Every day the Republicans resist the Democrats with preventing an organization of the House, and although the Democrats have offered to vote for two or three distinguished Republicans, their offer is treated with contempt. Only one method then remains, and that is to try what can be done in the election of a liberal North American.

How our Democratic adopted citizens like this plan of voting for a Know-Nothing to defeat the Republicans the News does not tell us. The statement of the News that "the Democrats have offered to vote for two, or three distinguished Republicans," is an entire mistake. No such "offer" has been made. On the other hand, Mr. SHERMAN has stated for himself and party friends that whenever it became apparent that he stood in the way of an organization, or that more votes could be concentrated on any other candidate, he would withdraw from the field at once.

The News contends that the House can be organized only by "a combination," which would form a majority. Another blunder.—The adoption of the plurality rule would lead to an immediate organization. That has been the course pursued heretofore, where no party could command a majority of the House.—Why is not the same thing done now?—Simply because the factious Democratic minority persistently oppose it. They "block the wheels of government, cause great expense and increase agitation," rather than submit with good grace and, as in duty bound, to the will of the majority and allow an organization to be effected. This factious, sectional and disorganizing course deserves the reprobation of every good citizen and true Democrat in the country.

To Tax-Payers.

It affords us pleasure to be able to state to the thousands of tax-payers throughout the city and State, that a bill is about to be introduced into the Legislature for the purpose of permanently changing the time for paying taxes in our State, so that they will become due on or about the 1st of October of each year. As it is now, it cannot be denied that people have to walk up to the captain's office and settle or have their property sold for taxes at a season of the year when money is scarce and business very dull. In the Fall, on the other hand, money is generally plenty, and particularly the middling and lower classes of tax-payers, would have money to pay with. All will agree with us in saying that laws for our government should be framed so as to benefit the many. With the change contemplated, we should not have the tax-payers in different portions of the State calling for an extension of time as now. The different Treasuries throughout the State would be amply supplied, and all demands against them promptly met. We say, by all means give the people the change, that they may rejoice; for the man of business always figures so that his paper becomes due at a time when he can meet it; then why not the tax-payer the same privilege?

The Republican National Convention.

The Tribune continues to insist that the late day named for the Chicago Convention must be reconsidered. The St. Louis Democrat joins in the call, and so does the Chicago Press & Tribune. It is demanded that the Committee should get together again and name Monday, the 7th of May, instead of Wednesday the 13th of June.

We agree with our Republican contemporaries in thinking that an earlier day than the 13th of June should be fixed upon for the assembling of the National Convention. Six months is none too little for the important canvass this year, and until the nominations are made, the canvass will not be commenced.

MR. SEWARD.—Soon after GOV. SEWARD's arrival in Washington, it was announced by some industrious manufacturer of news, that he had advised the withdrawal of Mr. SHERMAN, for Speaker, and the concentration of the Republican vote upon Mr. GILMER, of North Carolina, or Mr. PENNINGTON, of New Jersey. The statement was regarded as too absurd for formal contradiction, and yet it seems some persons have been led to believe it. As an answer to it, therefore, the Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser says: "GOV. SEWARD has not taken any officious part in the organization of the House, but he has never failed to express himself, in conversation, as impressed with the eminent fitness of Mr. SHERMAN for the Speaker's chair and as confident of his ultimate success. Neither does Mr. SEWARD seem at all cast down or dejected by the prophesies of his own political discomfiture. He doubtless feels confident that his political acts and words have been cordially endorsed by a large majority of his constituents, who are not to be intimidated from what they believe to be right. At a proper time we shall hear from him on the floor of the Senate."

BUT, says the Sentinel, "If Mr. Clark's resolution was withdrawn, Mr. Sherman would so explain himself. Why did he not do it before that resolution was offered? He will not be so explain himself, he could not so explain himself.—News.

Mr SHERMAN stands ready to "explain," fully and frankly, the moment Mr. CLARK withdraws his bullying and offensive resolution. He had no opportunity of explaining before, as Mr. CLARK threw the fire-brand into Congress at the very outset of the Session. Mr. CLARK understood perfectly well that Mr. SHERMAN's explanation would deprive the Disorganizing Democracy of all their thunder, and therefore refuses to withdraw his resolution. Every man of the least spirit and self-respect will applaud Mr. SHERMAN's declaration that while that resolve is pending he will explain nothing.

THE SHORTEST ROUTE TO ST. PAUL.—A writer in the Dubuque Express having claimed that the shortest route from Chicago to St. Paul was by way of Dubuque, the St. Paul Pioneer publishes the following reliable figures, furnished by a competent Railroad Engineer, to prove that the shortest route is by way of Milwaukee and La Crosse, as follows:

Chicago to Dubuque	188 miles.
Dubuque to Cedar Falls	110 do
Cedar Falls to State Line	74 do

EXTENSIVE FIRES IN CANADA.—On Monday week the extensive flour mills of Messrs. McKAY, near Ottawa city, were destroyed by fire, and a large amount of flour and grain consumed. Loss $90,000. Messrs. McKAY, after receiving the amount of insurance they had on their property, will still lose about $30,000.

The mills near Belleville were destroyed by fire on Saturday last. They were owned by Messrs. VANDERWATERS. Loss $30,000.

Who Shall be Chief Justice?

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL:—The approaching judicial election is beginning to excite considerable discussion, both in the public prints and elsewhere, while there is considerable diversity of opinion as to the course which the Republican party should pursue.

Many are in favor of a nomination by the Convention on the 29th of February next, in which opinion I concur.

The next question to be determined, after it shall be decided that a nomination shall be made, is, who shall be the nominee? The name of Judge A. D. SMITH has been prominently suggested, and a powerful effort is being made by himself and friends in that direction.

The fact, however, that the name of Judge SMITH, though warmly pressed for the nomination for Associate Justice last Spring, was twice deliberately rejected by the Republican caucus, would seem to render his nomination, at the present time, impolitic, to say the least.

In this connection, I wish to suggest the name of a man who, while I believe he would be entirely satisfactory to the Republican masses of the State—in ability, learning, experience, habits, judicial discernment, and judicial impartiality—eminently qualified for the position of Chief Justice. I refer to Hon. DAVID TAYLOR, the present Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit. If nominated, he would be elected by an overwhelming majority, his popularity being attended by the very great unanimity with which he was re-elected over the Democratic candidate, Mr. TALLMADGE, last spring, notwithstanding that the circuit is Democratic. Sound on the vital issues of the day, unapproachable as a Judge, with a comprehensive and logical intellect well stored with the principles of jurisprudence. I doubt if the people of Wisconsin can do better than to place him upon the Supreme Bench.

FOND DU LAC.

Down on Pennsylvania.

The Cleveland Plaindealer, whose editor, Mr. GRAY, is one of the "victims" of the present administration, thus takes on about the election of BOWMAN, as State Printer:

"But the calamity does not stop here. Pennsylvania not only takes the Presidency, the Public Printing, a Cabinet Minister, four Foreign Missions, four heads of Bureaus, one hundred and thirty odd Clerks in the Departments, and all the Territorial offices, Indian Agencies, &c., &c., worth having, but she threatens presenting Old Buck for a second term!

"O Immortal Gods! save us, save us!"
"Angels and Ministers of Grace defend us!"

We have had enough of Pennsylvania and of Pennsylvanians. They have stoned the Prophets and laid waste the kingdom of the righteous. They have disorganized the Democratic party, degraded themselves and degraded their country generally.

Let her slide!"

EXPORTS FROM MANITOWOC.—The Manitowoc Pilot publishes the following list of exports and imports, arrivals and departures for the port of Manitowoc during the season of 1859:

Flour, bbls, 20; fish, bf bbls, 2,250; oats, bus, 3,810; potatoes, bus, 992; timothy seed, bus, 1,195; maple sugar, lbs, 4,500; butter, lbs, 300; pearl ashes, lbs, 60,000; rags, lbs, 28,287; leather, lbs, 5,000; lumber, feet, 11,467,154; shingles, M, 76,702,000; oak staves, 60,000; pickets, 120,000; cedar posts, 193,000; bolts, cords, 20; railroad ties, 9000; wood, cords, 13,663; aggregate value, $259,-650,66.

Imports—Merchandize, tons, 2,000; water lime, bbls, 150; apples, bbls, 400; salt, bbls, 3,879.

The season of navigation commenced on the 28th of February and closed December 3d. This is the date of the arrival of the last steamer. The schooner Gertrude came into harbor on the 8th of January, making one trip in the new year.

During the year there were arrivals of sail vessels, 871; steamboats, 430; propellers, 276; total arrivals, 1,077.

Departures—Sail vessels, 365; steamboats, 430; propellers, 276; total departures, 1,071.

EIGHT PERSONS DROWNED IN THE HUDSON.—The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says eight persons were drowned near Rhinebeck, on Tuesday last. A party of twenty or twenty-five persons from the opposite side of the river, were crossing on the ice in a large covered sleigh drawn by four horses, when the ice gave way and the sleigh went down, carrying with it eight of the passengers, who were drowned. All but eight succeeded in getting out of the sleigh before it went down. The horses were saved.

A MERCHANT PRINCE of New York has recently purchased a very rich dress, which is to be presented as a bridal present to his niece, a beautiful young lady in Fifth avenue. A lady correspondent of the Boston Traveler describes it as follows: It is of gerseille color silk, and cost $350. It is figured with small boquets of flowers, and has nine narrow flounces, each edged with velvet. But the corsege is its most beautiful feature, ornamented as it is with a fichu berthe of tulle, trimmed with blonde.

WISCONSIN STAGE COMPANY.—Speaking of the daily line of Stages run by Messrs. DAVIS and MOORE, of this city, along the Lake Shore to Two Rivers, the Manitowoc Pilot says:

Travelers will find this route the best and most convenient from Milwaukee to Port Washington, Sheboygan, Manitowoc, and Two Rivers. The fare is low, the time quick, and the stage accommodations first rate.

AN IMPATIENT JURYMAN.—An Arkansas correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, gives the following as authentic:

You are fond of cracking jokes at the expense of Arkansas; now here is one in your own state absolutely true. I got it from an eye witness:

The District Court in one of your Northern parishes was in session; 'twas the first day of the Court—time, after dinner. Lawyers and others had dined, and were sitting out before the hotel, when a long, lank, unsophisticated countryman came up and unceremoniously made himself one of 'em, and remarked—

"Gentlemen, I wish you would go on with this Court; I want to go home; I left Betsey a looking out."

"Ah!" said one of the lawyers, "and pray what detains you at Court?"

"Why, sir," said the countryman, "I am fotched to be as a jury, and they say if I go home they will have to find me, and mout'n do that as I live a good piece."

"What jury are you on?" asked the lawyer.

"What jury?"

"Yes, what jury; grand or traverse?"

"Grand or travis jury? Dad-fetched if I know."

"Well," said the lawyer, "did the judge charge you?"

"Well, 'Squire, the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and kinder bosses over the crowd, gin us a talk; but I don't know if he charged anything or not."

The crowd broke up in a roar of laughter, and the Sheriff called the Court.

A NEWSPAPER AUTO-DA-FE.—The Poughkeepsie Eagle publishes the following letter:—

OCCOQUAN, VA., Dec 26, 1859.

DEAR SIR:—You will discontinue your paper directed to J. Yelverton, the Magistrates have burned it, and say they will continue to do the same if sent!

Yours respectfully, L. A LYNN.

GOING TO "BILE 'EM."—The other day we noticed several dray loads of scrawny, mangy dead hogs going through the street.—Our faith in sausages, never the strongest, was somewhat disturbed by the sight, and we asked a burly Teuton, who was driving the hindermost dray, what they were going to do with them. "Bile 'em—make lard," was the reply. "What killed them?" we asked; "too much strichnine in der shlops," replied the Goth, with a broad grin. We ruminated.—Cincinnati Commercial.

A WASHINGTON correspondent says that Mr. Bowman, of the Washington Constitution, is "a man of very little bottom." We should say then, in view of his two extremities, that he is a remarkably well balanced man.—Louisville Journal.

THE Hon. S. S. Cox, of Ohio, is very angry at having been called a doughface. The little man's face is doughy, but his feelings are crusty.—Louisville Journal.

The Bridal and Burial.

From the New York Tribune.

The circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Field are touching in the extreme.—She was formerly Miss Ann H. Tuthill, a principal in the Female Department of Brooklyn Public School No. 12, and for a number of years had been greatly beloved by her scholars and all who knew her. Mr. Field, who is a well-known Pomologist, residing on Broadway, Williamsburgh, as a member of the Board of Education, formed the acquaintance of Miss Tuthill. The acquaintance ripened into love, and resulted in their being married at King-ton, Wednesday morning last. On the occasion of resigning her school Miss Tuthill was presented by her scholars with a valuable keepsake, as a mark of the affection they bore her.

After leaving she proceeded to the residence of her sister at Kingston, for the purpose of preparing for her nuptials. On Tuesday evening, Mr. Field left Albany for Kingston, where he was met by her brother and one or two gentlemen from this city, who were present to witness the interesting ceremony. On Wednesday morning, the happy couple proceeded to the church, accompanied by a gay party of ladies and gentlemen in sleighs. Four gentlemen, who were unable to procure seats in the sleighs, were proceeding along on foot, when Miss Tuthill's niece called her attention to them and remarked that they looked more like pall-bearers than wedding guests. What a strange significance there was in those few words.

They were united at 10 o'clock, and after the ceremony Mr. Field and his happy bride crossed the river on the ice, in order to take the express train. There had been some doubts expressed regarding the safety of the ice, and when once fairly across they congratulated each other upon their safety. When the accident occurred, Mrs. Field and her friends were sitting at the rear of the last car, chatting and jesting together, Mr. Field being outside. The engine tore through the car, carrying Mrs. Field with it, breaking both her legs and mangling her body frightfully. After the first crash, her husband came to her rescue, and removing a great quantity of rubbish, he found her on the top of the boiler of the locomotive, held fast against the side of the car by portions of her clothing. Tearing her dress from its fastening, and breaking his way through the car windows, Mr. Field bore the mangled and almost lifeless form of his bride to the air.

Here he was surrounded by sympathizing friends, who did everything for her that it was possible to do, till at last she was placed in a hastily made cot in one of the cars, and conveyed to the Getty House, at Yonkers. Medical aid was instantly procured, but Mrs. Field failed rapidly, and at 7 o'clock she breathed her last in the arms of her beloved husband. Mr. Field was nearly frantic with grief, and it was feared that this sudden crushing to earth of his cup of joy, so recently filled to overflowing, would affect his reason. But after a night of the wildest grief, he fell asleep in the morning, and when he again awoke the danger had passed. The body of the unfortunate lady was taken to Kingston yesterday, accompanied by the bereaved husband, brother and sisters and to-day her funeral will take place at the same church from which, but two days since, at the same hour, she issued the happy wife of the chosen one of her heart.

UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR AT HARVARD COLLEGE.—For some time past certain "college tricks" have been practised by the students of Harvard University, which have been quite annoying to the faculty, and not quite creditable to the young men who have performed them. Still they were not hanging matters, nor acts requiring the employment of armed force to suppress them. So much for preface. The particular misfortune which has involved respectable people in trouble, and placed the University in an unjust relation to the students and their parents, is this:

For some time past the bibles of the chapels of Harvard and Yale colleges have been missing, and it was known that they had been abstracted by the students of the respective institutions, who desired to place the New Haven Bible in the pulpit of the Cambridge Chapel, and, in like manner, to place the Harvard Bible in the Yale desk. The Yale College "jokers" had perpetrated their "joke." At 2 o'clock yesterday morning, a Cambridge student, Mr. William H. Forbes (son of Mr. John M. Forbes,) attempted to enter the Chapel with the view of "sustaining the honor of old Harvard."

So far this was harmless enough, although a violation of College law; but young Forbes, while entering the church, was seized by policeman Hilton, who was placed in the church to detect the authors of certain previous misdemeanors. A vigorous resistance was made," and now we give the narrative of a person who has a close knowledge of the facts—"during which the detective discharged his revolver, without injury to the student, who struck him a heavy blow with a Baltimore billy, and then surrendered, being apprehensive of a second shot. The two remained in the chapel all night, where they were found by the janitor. A hearing was had yesterday, before Justice Ladd, of Cambridgeport, who committed the student to await the result of the officer's wound, which, we understand, is not as serious as at first supposed. The affair is greatly regretted by all parties. Mr. Forbes is a favorite in his class, many of whom have experienced his kindness during sickness and financial distress. His first act was to send a classmate to the officer's house to express his sorrow, and to offer any possible assistance.

We have here given what we believe to be a faithful statement of the unfortunate affair; and we do this in order to avoid misrepresentation. We cannot place the facts before the public, however, without expressing our disapproval of the conduct of those who placed an armed officer in such relations with gentlemen who, though they may be guilty of acts quite reprehensible in themselves, are not to be treated as burglars and highwaymen. There was no necessity for pistols in this case.

No one more keenly feels the consequences of this misfortune than young Forbes. He regrets it on account of the injury done to the officer, on account of his of his own family, and on account of the college of which he has been a member.—Boston Courier.

SPECTACLES! SPECTACLES!!

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTfully announce to the Public that he has imported from Rathenow, in Germany, a very large assortment of the "Celebrated Rathenow Spectacles,"

Which received at the World's Fairs, both in London and Paris, the Gold Medals, for the superiority and high optic values of the Glasses as well as neatness and elegance of Frames; these Spectacles being judged the best on exhibition.

Together with the RATHENOW SPECTACLES I have also from the same Manufacturing Establishment a large assortment of OPERA GLASSES, PERSPECTIVES, SPY GLASSES, and every article in the line of an Optician, which I will sell as cheap as inferior goods can be bought for in New York or any other place East. I will also fit Glasses to order.

Dealers and the public generally are invited to examine my stock.

H. W. ANGER, Optician.

Only Agent for the U. S. of the Optic Manufacturing Establishment at Rathenow, in Germany.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING WHICH IS now so universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers, head aches, piles costiveness, consumption, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. B. MOFFAT, at his office, 335 Broadway, and by store Keepers and Druggists generally.

The Great Secret at Last Discovered!!

JUNIUS JUDSON,

PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple, manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Sole Boulder, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patents issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1859. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1859. Second Patent, March 9th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 9th, 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the oscillation of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased widths of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or restraint of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of opening necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of weight imparted to governor balls, and reading the action of the governors gradually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really identical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and reinquest all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, free of the secured and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements—and thereby prevent fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which I at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.

THE BRIDAL VEIL.

BY ALICE CAREY.

We're married, they say, and you think that you have won me—
Well, take this white veil from my head, and look on me;
Here's coarser to vex you, and master to grieve you,
Here's double to distrust you, and faith to believe you—
I am all as you see, common earth, common dew;
Be wary, and mould me to roses, not rue!

Ah, shake out the flimsy thing, fold after fold,
And see if you have me to keep and to hold—
Look close on my heart—see its record of its sinning—
It is and yours to-day for the yesterday's winning—
The past is not mine—I am too proud to borrow—
You must grow to new heights if I love you to-morrow.

We're married! I'm plighted to hold up to your praises,
As the turf at your feet does its handful of daises;
That way lies my honor—my pathway of pride,
But, mark you, if greener grass grow either side,
I shall know it, and keeping in body with you,
Shall walk in my spirit with feet on the dew!

We're married! Oh, pray that our love do not fail!
I have wings flattened down and hid under my veil;
They are subtle as light—you can never undo them,
And swift in their flight—you can never pursue them,
But, mark you, if greener grass grow either side,
I can slip like a shadow, a dream from your hands.

Nay, call me not cruel, and fear not to take me,
I am yours for my life-time to be what you would make me—
To wear my white veil for a sign, or a cover,
As you shall be proven my lord or my lover,
A cover for peace that is dead, or a token
Of bliss that can never be written, or spoken.

[Written expressly for the Daily Sentinel.]

TWENTY STEPS TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

The house was at this moment undergoing some kind of regeneration internally. There were many boxes about the entrances; upper windows was open; and a painter's ladder stood against the side. As I approached the building from the water, Merlin greeted me at the door way. Merlin was the tutelary divinity, the guardian spirit of the place.—Whether there was any baptismal prefix to the name "Merlin," I never knew. The single word as it here stands, had been a household word in my uncle's family time out of mind, and whenever there had been any reference to Lazylake, Merlin was mentioned, so that I had grown accustomed to associate the two as inseparable. It is true I knew but little about her; but as I cast my eye over the little figure that stood in the doorway, there was something of a recognition—a recollection of the busy form that was omnipresent on that memorable festive day. She was a rosy little body, trim and matronly in air and feature, but a trifle coquettish, I thought, in costume; though the shortness of her dress, the lively color, the smart apron, struck me as like something I had seen in the play of William Tell, yet it pleased me, and I thought was wonderfully appropriate to the place. She addressed me at once:

"You ain't coming in I suppose, being so taken up with the style of things out doors. I've been waiting for you to get through walking about in that wet grass, looking at the beautiful condition of the weeds, until I begun to think I'd have to come out and tell you we'd got the house somewhat to rights inside, and it might be more comfortable for you to take a look at it;" then the little woman smiled from her mouth up, with an expression which said, "you must take everything I say, in good part, I'm a privileged character here." I greeted her as an old acquaintance, and followed her in to make a tour of the est ablishment, and to notice the quick, emphatic clatter of her heels as she piloted me through marranged rooms from the kitchen to the observatory. I tried to please her by noticing everything, even the bright tower of tins in the butteries, and the pattern of the new paper on the chambers, and my praise only heightened her smiles and garrulity.

"Everything will go swimmingly, with such a motherly little housewife," I said to myself. And I could see enough of her character and ability disclosed to warrant this conclusion. I felt in the presence of a domesticated Napoleon whose mind would comprehend and direct every stray shirt-button, as well as every under-servant of the establishment. I saw that everything from the vane of the observatory to the chick with a lame leg, was under her surveillance. We climbed the shaky ladder that led up to the eyry on the roof, and then I sat down to take a deliberate survey of the exquisitely beautiful scene stretched out below.

The Hudson extended in all its grandeur, with its town laden banks sloping back into blue hills, and here and there, away off shaded by purple mountains of a dark rich hue against the base of which some motionless boat seemed to have fastened its glistening white sail. To the North the piles of lapis lazuli like airy pyramids told where the Highlands were. One turret of Sunnyside, the home of Washington Irving, like a thread of amber marked the green distance away down the river with a bright little ray of contrast. And nearer were the clustering homes of Tarrytown—the sombre shades of Sleepy Hollow and the curving outlet of Lazylake crawling towards the Tappan Zee.

"Merlin," I said. "What a look out this is! I wish I were a painter."

"Lands! that's just what Miss Therbur said when she was up here the other day"—

"Miss Therbur?"

"Yes—Miss Blanche—that's their home over there towards Sing Sing—you can just see the white chimney over the trees. She comes over very often and always sits awhile in this observatory on account of the view, and the other day when she was here, says she, I don't believe other people are like me, I seem to be so affected by beautiful scenery. Oh, Merlin, says she, I wish I was a painter! I wish you was, says I, and then, lands! we might carry them hills, up there that poke their blue noses over one another so cunningly, down stairs with us and hang 'em on the wall, and it would save a good deal of climbing; and she laughed."

"Well, what else did she say, Merlin?"

Bless you, she pointed out bits of beauty that I'd never a thought of, telling me to look how bright the white specks of Piermont looked against the dark hollow in the Palisades, and how distinct the trees on the rocks looked against the gold sky, though they seemed no bigger than little hairs growing out of the mountain, and she could see the trains on the Erie road coming down, which I couldn't see, and she almost persuaded me that the foggy banks away down there where the river seems to run into the sky, were full of the spires of New York, but I couldn't see it. Land's no! my eyes ain't as good as that."

The little woman pointed out successfully the chimneys of distinguished neighbors, living within a radius of three miles, intersepersing her descriptions with her peculiar smiles and quaint ejaculations. After a long account of the manner in which the several Mr. So-and so's became possessed of property, and various other interesting details, she suddenly reminded me that I was an invalid and that the observatory was entirely "too exposed for me," so we came down.

Throughout that day I busied myself in inspecting all the sylvan beauties of the vicinity. I poled the leaky shallop that I found on the shore of the pond, far up the stream, parting the entwining branches to make a passage, and crowding into cool and moist coverts, where the hum of the waters was deadened and aromatic incense hung on the still air. I explored the glens and climbed to the top of grassy knolls, and at the close of day felt a weariness that admonished me of my condition. I retired early with a languor of healthy exhaustion, and awoke the next morning with a clear head and a vivid sense, and experienced a well-defined feeling of satisfaction—a childish joy that sprang wholly from the novelty of my situation and the assurance that no grim duty stood waiting for me to attire. I opened my window and heard the birds as I never heard them before. Merlin stood beneath, distributing some kind of pabulum to a swarm of hens; and on everything about the house the warm morning sunshine fell bright and cheering, making vivid contrast to the long shadows of the trees, and drawing the misty curtains from the distant hills with a gentle hand. When I entered the hall, a savory odor of ham—aye, Cincinnati ham—plebeian food, but sending forth an ambrosial incense, such as I never before encountered—came to my sense. The charm of rusticity—the novelty of sitting down with Merlin alone, aye plain Merlin, but, thought I, a fit handmaiden for a god—completed the waking enjoyment.

Sands' Pale Cream Ale.

HAVING RECENTLY PURCHASED the Spring Brewery, on Eighth and Chestnut streets, with the view of making the above mentioned beverage in Milwaukee, I would respectfully solicit the patronage of the people and those Saloons and Restaurants that desire to keep a prime Ale on draught for their patrons.

To those who are familiar with Sands' Chicago Pale Cream Ale, I need say nothing as to its quality; to those who do not, I would simply ask a trial, and I pledge myself to my patrons to do all in my power to make Sands' Pale Cream Ale as popular, if not more so in Milwaukee and vicinity as it is in Chicago and surrounding country, and I trust by the assistance of lovers of Good Ale to give Sands' Milwaukee Pale Cream and Amber Ale a reputation second to none in the West.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY EVENING, January 24th, 1860.

Money Matters.

Currency is plenty enough for all the demands of trade, the banks discounting to the full extent of their customers' wants at the usual rate. Exchange on the East remains firm at 3 per cent. We were a little behind the times in quoting Exchange at 1¾ per cent. on Monday, the rate having been raised to 2 per cent, premium in the buyer of the previous week.

Commercial.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

Flour, bbls.....	552	Dressed hogs, No....	102
Wheat, bus	6,121	Hides, No	7,563
Corn, bus.....	316	Poultry, lbs	290
Barley, bus.....	320	Cattle, head	4

CHICAGO, January 23d.—Receipts: 3,054 bbls flour; 7,596 bus wheat, 37,918 bus corn, 7,638 bus oats, 1,362 bus rye, 100 bus barley.

Flour was more active and 10c lower. Good spring extras were sold at $4.75@4.80, and choice at $4.90. Wheat was quiet but firm at 96@96c for No. 2 spring—very little having changed hands.

The receipts of hogs, live and dressed, since yesterday (not up 1 o'clock), dressed hogs were scarcely so brisk as a shade lower in price. Extra lots only obtained at $5.25, and fair to good $5.20@5.6. The range of prices were $5.20@5.12½, but the great bulk of the sales were at 5.10@5.6, dividing on 250 lbs. Live hogs sold freely to packers at a range of $4.15@5.00.

The provision market is firm but inactive. Mess pork is eagerly inquired for at $15.50, but holders ask $15.75@16, and we have no sales of consequence to report. A lot of 500 bbls Milwaukee Mess Pork was sold here at $15.25—delivered there. Bulk meats are also firm and in good demand for the Baltimore trade, with sales of Clear per shoulders and 2,000 per sides at 9¾ and 9¾ c packed, to be delivered in 15 days. There is a good inquiry for packed hams; sales 50 tres at 9½c. Lard quiet and almost nominal at 10½c. Tallow quiet at 10c for prime, and 9½c for country.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 24th—7 P. M.

FLOUR—The article remains unusually quiet. Country Extras are held at $4.62½@4.75 for the range of ordinary to choice brands, but these figures are considerably above the views of buyers.

WHEAT—The market for wheat was buoyant to-day, and opened a shade firmer than yesterday, No. 1 spring selling at $1 on the track; No. 2 at 99c; and Extras at $1.02. The latter quality was not so firm as No. 1, as has been the case for several weeks. Sales: 650 bus No. 2 on track at 99c; 2,130 bus No. 1 on track and in store at $1; 200 bus Club delivered at $1.02; 110 bus do at $1.03½; 1,457 bus Extra delivered at $1.02.

OATS—quiet and quoted at 30@30c.

CORN—Firm 50@51c; shelled 56@56c.

BARLEY—Dull. Sales 220 bus of a nice quality at 60c.

RYE—Very scarce and worth 80@85c.

GRASS SEEDS—Is firmer, Timothy selling at 2.25@2.50 —and very choice qualities held at something above these figures.

POTATOES—Very fair qualities can be bought at 50c. The range is 40 to 60c for common and mixed to prime Neshannocks.

EGGS—Held at 14c by the barrel, but rather dull.

BUTTER—Firm in 1st@11c; crock and roll 10@13c.

HIDES—Steady and quoted as follows: Country green frozen 5½@6c; green salted (full cured,) 6½ @7; dry salted 10@11c; dry flint 12@13½c.

DRESSED HOGS—Receipts 162. The market for dressed hogs continues pretty firm at a range of $5.62½@5.75 per average of 175@200 lbs. Sales:

10 hogs averaging 205 lbs at			$5.00
7	"	175	" 5.62½
15	"	210	" 5.75
2	"	210	" 5.90

FOREIGN MARKETS.

[Per Africa.]

JAS. HEWETT & CO.'s circular reports in some cases a partial advance in breadstuffs at the close of last week, but in most cases the week's demand continued limited, and there was no general disposition to press business; consequently there was no material variation in prices. The deliveries by farmers continued, apparently indicating a more abundant supply of their stands than has generally been supposed.—Sales reported at Liverpool on the 21st of December: wheat, 77,000 quarters; Indian corn, 153,000 do; 13,000 sacks flour.

Provisions.—No change of importance has occurred in American provisions, but there is an improved demand for most descriptions.

Rice—The demand is pretty good for new, while old is neglected even at relatively lower prices

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been arrested by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid and given up by their friends and usefulness, to mourn the loss of health, have found in it the only all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—Even the hacking cough, the sleepless eve, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him Consumption. He tries every thing that the disease is wasting his vitals, and shows by his rapid capture more and more over at his frame. He is taking the Cherry Pectoral now: it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy: his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it health and strength. The accident which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living witness to the truth of these virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness is not confined to the conquest it has gained by its protection from and cure of the countless colds and coughs which it would be folly to enumerate here. Every species of throat disease, from the slight hoarseness to the most alarming ulceration, Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and even Consumption itself, are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and will find that a dose administered in time will save much suffering and sickness, and counteract the insidious approaches of disease. Public speakers and singers will find relief from the first symptoms of hoarseness, by using it, and military officers and soldiers from the inclemencies of the weather and exposure to which they are subjected.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for use in every complaint, may be had gratis, and is found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the country. Druggists and dealers everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have for sale Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and also for sale the remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Pills, fifteen cents. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, when Ayer's Sarsaparilla will make you bloom, clear the headache, heartburn, and their kindred ills relieve, & cure the stomach is foul. Don't purchase vile stuff called sarsaparilla, because it is cheap, but buy the best. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is concentrated to the highest degree. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is purifying, powerful, and all mixed in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills are best for this purpose as well as for quenching fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore each organ to healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken. They are the one great medical wonder of the age, acknowledged by all who know them, and by thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purging medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN MOE, Milwaukee, A. KENDALL & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

AS ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN EVEN in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Crockery, Toys, &c.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE

Meets all emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered crockery, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for cane seat and ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet maker's glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.]

The Great Secret at Last Discovered!!

JUNIUS JUDSON,

PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Nerve Building, cor. B. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued to the United States, Nov. 5th, 1859. Reissued, Jan. 31st, 1860. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 3rd, 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by perforating the contracting action of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with increased valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or reward of the engine,) at the governor, to equal the exact amount of apperature necessary to counteract that resistance, and from the apperture, by the addition of a small amount of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governors is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore perfect the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really identical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements—and thereby prevent fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations. THE BRIDAL VEIL.

BY ALICE CAREY.

We're married, they say, and you think that you have won me;
Well, take this white veil from my head, and look on me:
Here's matter to vex you, and matter to grieve you,
Here's doubt to distress you, and faith to believe you—
I am all as you see, common earth, common dew;
Be wary, and mould me to roses, not rue!

Ah, shake out the slimy thing, fold after fold,
And see if you have me to keep and to hold—
Look close on my heart—see the worst of its sinning—
It is not yours to-day for the yesterday's winning—
The past is not mine—I am too proud to borrow—
You must grow to new heights if I love you to-morrow.

We're married! I'm plighted to hold up to your praises,
As the turf at your feet does its handful of daises;
That way lies my honor—my pathway of pride,
But, mark you, if greener grass grow either side,
I shall know it, and keeping in body with you,
Shall walk in my spirit with feet on the dew!

We're married! Oh, pray that our love do not fail!
I have wings fluttered down and bid under my veil:
They are subtle as light—you can never undo them,
And swift in their flight—you can never pursue them,
And spite of all clasping, and spite of all bands,
I can slip like a shadow, a dream from your hands.

Nay, call me not cruel, and fear not to take me,
I am yours for my life-time to be what you would make me—
To wear my white veil for a sign, or a cover,
As you shall be proven my lord or my lover,
A cover for peace that is dead, or a token
Of bliss that can never be written, or spoken.

[Written expressly for the Daily Sentinel.]

TWENTY STEPS

TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

The house was at this moment undergoing some kind of regeneration internally. There were many boxes about the entrances; upper windows was open; and a painter's ladder stood against the side. As I approached the building from the water, Merlin greeted me at the door way. Merlin was the tutelary divinity, the guardian spirit of the place.—Whether there was any baptismal prefix to the name "Merlin," I never knew. The single word as it here stands, had been a household word in my uncle's family time out of mind, and whenever there had been any reference to Lazylake, Merlin was mentioned, so that I had grown accustomed to associate the two as inseperable. It is true I knew but little about her; but as I cast my eye over the little figure that stood in the doorway, there was something of a recognition—a recollection of the busy form that was omnipresent on that memorable festive day. She was a rosy little body, trim and matronly in air and feature, but a trifle coquettish, I thought, in costume; though the shortness of her dress, the lively color, the smart apron, struck me as like something I had seen in the play of William Tell, yet it pleased me, and I thought was wonderfully appropriate to the place. She addressed me at once:

"You ain't coming in I suppose, being so taken up with the style of things out doors. I've been waiting for you to get through walking about in that wet grass, looking at the beautiful condition of the weeds, until I began to think I'd have to come out and tell you we'd got the house somewhat to rights inside, and it might be more comfortable for you to take a look at it;" then the little woman smiled from her mouth up, with an expression which said, "you must take everything I say, in good part, I'm a privileged character here." I greeted her as an old acquaintance, and followed her in to make a tour of the establishment, and to notice the quick, emphatic clatter of her heels as she piloted me through unarranged rooms from the kitchen to the observatory. I tried to please her by noticing everything, even the bright tower of tins in the butteries, and the pattern of the new paper on the chambers, and my praise only heightened her smiles and garrulity.

"Everything will go swimmingly, with such a motherly little housewife," I said to myself. And I could see enough of her character and ability disclosed to warrant this conclusion. I felt in the presence of a domesticated Napoleon whose mind would comprehend and direct every stray shirt-button, as well as every under-servant of the establishment. I saw that everything from the vane of the observatory to the chick with a lame leg, was under her surveillance. We climbed the shaky ladder that led up to the eyry on the roof, and then I sat down to take a deliberate survey of the exquisitely beautiful scene stretched out below.

The Hudson extended in all its grandeur, with its town laden banks sloping back into blue hills, and here and there, away off shaded by purple mountains of a dark rich hue against the base of which some motionless boat seemed to have fastened its glistening white sail. To the North the piles of lapis lazuli like airy pyramids told where the Highlands were. One turret of Sunnyside, the home of Washington Irving, like a thread of amber marked the green distance away down the river with a bright little ray of contrast. And nearer were the clustering homes of Tarrytown—the sombre shades of Steepy Hollow and the curving outlet of Lazylake crawling towards the Tappan Zee.

"Merlin," I said. "What a look out this is! I wish I were a painter."

"Lands! that's just what Miss Therbur said when she was up here the other day"—

"Miss Therbur?"

"Yes—Miss Blanche—that's their home over there towards Sing Sing—you can just see the white chimney over the trees. She comes over very often and always sits awhile in this observatory on account of the view, and the other day when she was here, says she, I don't believe other people are like me, I seem to be so affected by beautiful scenery. Oh, Merlin, says she, I wish I was a painter! I wish you was, says I, and then, lands! we might carry them hills, up there that poke their blue noses over one another so cunningly, down stairs with us and hang 'em on the wall, and it would save a good deal of climbing; and she laughed."

"Well, what else did she say, Merlin?"

Bless you, she pointed out bits of beauty that I'd never a thought of, telling me to look how bright the white specks of Piermont looked against the dark hollow in the Palisades, and how distinct the trees on the rocks looked against the gold sky, though they seemed no bigger than little hairs growing out of the mountain, and she could see the trains on the Erie road coming down, which I couldn't see, and she almost persuaded me that the foggy banks away down there where the river seems to run into the sky, were full of the spires of New York, but I couldn't see it. Land's no! my eyes ain't as good as that."

The little woman pointed out successfully the chimneys of distinguished neighbors, living within a radius of three miles, interspersing her descriptions with her peculiar smiles and quaint ejaculations. After a long account of the manner in which the several Mr. So-and so's became possessed of property, and various other interesting details, she suddenly reminded me that I was an invalid and that the observatory was entirely "too exposed for me," so we came down.

Throughout that day I busied myself in inspecting all the sylvan beauties of the vicinity. I poled the leaky shallop that I found on the shore of the pond, far up the stream, parting the entwining branches to make a passage, and crowding into cool and moist coverts, where the hum of the waters was deadened and aromatic incense hung on the still air. I explored the glens and climbed to the top of grassy knolls, and at the close of day felt a weariness that admonished me of my condition. I retired early with a laugnor of healthy exhaustion, and awoke the next morning with a clear head and a vivid sense, and experienced a well-d tired feeling of satisfaction—a childish joy that sprang wholly from the novelty of my situation and the assurance that no grim duty stood waiting for me to attire. I opened my window and heard the birds as I never heard them before. Merlin stood beneath, distributing some kind of pabulum to a swarm of hens; and on everything about the house the warm morning sunshine fell bright and cheering, making vivid contrast to the long shadows of the trees, and drawing the misty curtains from the distant hills with a gentle hand. When I entered the hall, a savory c lor of ham—aye, Cincinnati ham—plebeian food, but sending forth an ambrosial incense, such as I never before encountered—came to my sense. The charm of rusticity—the novelty of sitting down with Merlin alone, aye plain Merlin, but, thought I, a fit handmaiden for a god—completed the waking enjoyment.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY EVENING, January 24th, 1860.

Money Matters.

Currency is pretty enough for all the demands of trade, the banks discounting to the full extent of their customers' wants at the usual rate. Exchange on the East remains firm at 2 per cent. We were a little behind the times in quoting Exchange at 1⅜ per cent. on Monday, the rate having been raised to 2 per cent. premium in the buying of the previous week.

Commercial.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

Flour, bbls	552	Dressed hogs, No...	162
Wheat, bus	6,121	Hides, No	7,541
Corn, bus	316	Poultry, lbs	200
Barley, bus	520	Cattle, head	4

CHICAGO, January 24th.—Receipts: 1,664 bbls flour, 7,296 bus wheat, 37,915 bus corn, 7,635 bus oats, 1,952 bus rye, 109 bus barley.

FLOUR was more active and 10c lower. Good spring extra was sold at $4,70@4,75, and choice at $4,90. Wheat was quiet but firm at 90@90c for No. 2 spring—very little having changed hands.

The receipts of hogs, live and dressed, since Saturday foot up 1,611. Dressed hogs were scarcely so brisk as I should have expected in the cars. Extra lots only commanded $6,12½, and fair to good $5,90@6. The range of prices were $5,90@6,12½, but the great bulk of the sales were a $6,00@6,06, dividing on 200 lbs. Live hogs sell freely to packers at from 5@5¼ gross.

The provision market is firm but inactive. Mess pork is eagerly inquired for at $15,50, but holders ask $15,75@16, and we have no sales of consequence to report. A lot of 500 bbls Milwaukee Mess Pork was sold recently at $15,25—delivered there. Bulk meats are also firm and in good demand for the Baltimore trade, with sales of 6,000 lbs shoulders and 2,000 lbs sides at 5¾ and 8¼c respectively, to be delivered in 15 days. There is a good enquiry for pickled hams; sales 50 tres at 9½c. Lard quiet and sales not material at 9½c. Tallow quiet at 10c for prime, and 9½c for country.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 24th—7 P. M.

FLOUR.—This article remains unusually quiet. Country Extras are held at $4,65@4,75 for the range of ordinary to choice brands, but these figures are considerably above the views of buyers.

WHEAT.—The market for wheat was buoyant to-day, and opened a shade firmer than yesterday, No. 1 spring selling at $1 on the track; No. 2 at 90c; and Extra at $1,00. The latter quality was not so firm as No. 1, as has been the case for several weeks. Sales: 600 bus No. 2 on track at 90c; 3,100 bus No. 1 on track and in store at $1; 200 bus Club delivered at $1,02; 110 bus do at $1,02½; 1,427 bus Extra delivered at $1,03.

OATS—quiet and quoted at 32@33c.

CORN—Firm at 35@35½; shelled 36@36c.

BARLEY—Dull. Sales 220 bus of a nice quality at 55c.

RYE—Very scarce and worth 56@55c.

GRASS SEED—Is firmer, Timothy selling at $2@2,25—and very choice qualities held at something above this figure.

POTATOES—Very fair qualities can be bought at 50c. The range is 15 to 60c for common and mixed to prime Northern Rocks.

EGGS—Held at 14c by the barrel, but rather dull.

BUTTER—Firkin 10@11c; crock and roll 12@13c.

HIDES—Steady and quoted as follows: Country green frozen 5½@6c; green salted (all cured,) 6½@7c; dry salted 10@11c; dry flint 12½@13½c.

DRESSED HOGS—Receipts 162. The market for dressed hogs continues pretty firm at a range of $5,62½@6 for averages of 175@220 lbs. Sales:

10 hogs averaging 175 lbs at		$5,90
21	"	175	" 5,92½
14	"	195	" 5,85
145	"	205	" 5,85
15	"	210	" 5,90
8	"	220	" 6,00

HEADINGS—A shade lower, selling now at 21½c.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

[Per Africa.]

JAS HEWETT & CO.'s circular reports in some cases prices slightly against the buyer, and especially for good staple, but the improvement is not sufficient to warrant any change in quotations. Imports continue heavy. Importers being disposed to hold in the face of a diminishing stock and continued favorable advices for a large yield in the U. S. Imports of week 142,000 bales against 81,000 bales from the U. S. and 19,000 bales Egyptian at sea from the U. S. and 19,000 last year. There is generally a good feeling about business, now that political affairs appear to assume a more satisfactory character. Good stapled cotton is much sought after, but other sorts rather neglected. We repeat former quotations.

WAKEFIELD, NASH & CO., say prices are irregular.

BRIGHTSIDE—Jas. Hewett & Co.'s circular reports that the slight advance in breadstuffs at the close of last week, had been lost during this week. The demand continued limited, and there was no general disposition to press business; consequently there was no material variation in prices. The deliveries of factory continued, apparently indicating a more abundant supply in their hands than has generally been supposed.

STOCKS at Liverpool on the 31st of December: wheat 1,250,000 qrs; Indian corn, 1,500,000 do; 13,000 sacks and 16,000 bbls.

PROVISIONS—No change of importance has occurred in American provisions, but there is an improved demand for most descriptions.

BEEF—The demand is pretty good for new, while old is neglected even at relatively lower prices

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, Ayer's CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to counteract and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and to perfect health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the throat and lungs.

Theory, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of consumption was formerly long and strong, whisper to fill but him Consumption is a terrible thing; but the disease is knowing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more every day. Relief is at hand; use the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy. Sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dark vision pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any trouble with the lungs or throat, but the searching trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an immortality of fame. The deliverers of thousands are here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. Keep the blood pure, and the lungs will be sure; are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable disease. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in the early stages of the disease, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious progress of the current of pulmonary consumption. A flask, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish and distribute gratis, broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains. Ayer's Pills for all the purposes of a family physic. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, and consumption. Ayer's Sarsaparilla for the blood. Ayer's Cathartic Pills for the bowels. Ayer's Ague Cure for fever and ague, and all the affections which arise from the malarious poisons of miasmatic districts.

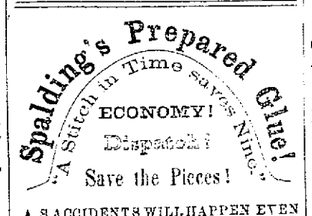
FRENCH PRUNES.—A PRIME LOT FOR sale by EDWARD TRUSLOW, 191 East Water St

New York Advertisement.



AS ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN EVEN to well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Crockery, Toys, &c.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE

Meets all emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and will stand the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, shattered vases, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone shell and ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

The admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best refined mucilages. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.

"USEFUL IN EVERY HOUSE."

N. B.—A Brush accompanies each bottle.

PRICE 25 CENTS.

Wholesale Depot No. 30 Platt st., New York
